Various Clubs to Help Raise Funds as Necessary
American Legion	The Child Welfare Foundation, Inc. (CWF), is a separate 501(c)3 corporation that accepts funding proposals from nonprofit organizations for projects that contribute to the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual welfare of children. Grants are only given to entities that help U.S. children in a large geographic area; they are not awarded for day-to-day operating expenses or special operating expenses.	http://www.legion.org		Northglenn Post 22 11081 Irma Dr. Northglenn, CO 80233	(303) 452-4767
Elks Club	Charitable organization involved in scholarships, youth and veterans activities. We are very proud of Laradon, our State Major Project, which is a facility for the disabled and developmentally challenged individuals.	http://www.coloradoelks.org/		10969 Irma Dr. Northglenn, CO	(303) 452-1644
Kiwanis	It is one of the largest community-service organizations dedicated primarily to helping the children of the world. Kiwanis International serves children and communities worldwide with nearly 597,500 adult and youth members in more than 80 nations and geographic areas.	http://www.rmdkiwanis.com/public_district/index.aspx
Lions Club	We volunteer for many different kinds of community projects – including caring for the environment, feeding the hungry and aiding seniors and the disabled.	http://www.lionsclubs.org
Shriners	Dedicated to improving the lives of kids living with orthopaedic problems, burns, spinal cord injuries and more. With the belief that all kids should lead full, productive lives, we've built an entire health care system around this thought.	http://www.shrinershq.org/Hospitals/Main
